David Williams and Karen McDonald,

I am the attorney for the parents of Denis Preka, murdered by Nicholas Remington. I have now made telephone calls to both David Williams and Karen McDonald. I have left messages asking for return calls. I have received no calls from David Williams or Karen McDonald, despite my very courteous verbal messages and emails (to Mr. Williams). I am at a loss as to why nobody will call me to discuss the above referenced matter. Mr. Williams previously indicated he was willing to speak with me but that he wished to speak with the detective on the case and perhaps Mr. Keast first. That was several weeks ago. No contact since.

The above referenced case was dismissed without prejudice. Additional information has been secured and I, as attorney for the parents of the deceased, wish to discuss the matter with the Oakland County Prosecuting Attorney's office. Being stonewalled is not acceptable.

My next step is to proceed to the Attorney General who, perhaps, will pay closer attention to this matter and care about dispensing justice to both victims and perpetrators.

I will withhold contacting the Attorney General for a short period of time. It is my sincere wish and hope that during that short period of time I am contacted by your office to set up a meeting to share information and discuss the potential reinstatement of charges against Mr. Remington.

Thank you for your consideration.

Yours Very Truly,

Robert D. Ihrie
